

PUPPIES ON PARMENTER

Jog/Walk for Guide Dogs

Saturday, May 19, 2012

11 am - 3 pm

A Benefit for OccuPaws Guide Dog Association.

Sponsored by McFarland State Bank

Bring your family and dog, and stroll the Parmenter Street corridor in Middleton.

Stop at businesses along the way and have your OccuPaws Jog Book stamped - with each stamp you get a free raffle ticket for great door prizes!

Don't have a dog? Come anyway for the fun and prizes!

Register beginning at 10:00 am at the Capital Brewery Beer Garden.

Cost is $5 per adult; kids and dogs are free!

Each registration gives you one raffle ticket and an OccuPaws Jog Book with special offers from participating businesses!

Contribute $20 to OccuPaws and get a free T-shirt!

End your walk at Capital Brewery's Beer Garden and "Have a Dog with the Dogs."

Hot dogs and beverages available for purchase.

Great raffle prizes awarded, live music beginning at noon and ending at 3 pm, at the Capital Brewery.

Why support OccuPaws?

- Trains and supplies Guide Dogs for the Visually Impaired in Wisconsin.
- Based in Madison. Places Dogs throughout Wisconsin.
- Provides Guide Dogs at no charge to recipients.
- Trains recipients in their homes with the Guide Dogs.
- Provides Children's Visual Companion Dogs to blind children - only organization in the U.S. to do this for children!
- Depends entirely on donations for financial support.

OccuPaws
Guide Dog Association

www.occupaws.org

Designed by

Toni Lynn Creative <http://tonipawlowskycreative.intuitwebsites.com/>